PARTIE 3 (PAGES 166-169)

Questions 32 through 34 refer to the following conversation.

Woman I'm tired of cooking at home. Let's have dinner at a restaurant this evening.

Man OK. I can meet you downtown at around nine o'clock.

Woman That's so late. I'll be starving by then. Can't you make it earlier? Why don't we meet at seven?

Man I can't do that. This report I'm working on is due tomorrow, and I'll have to stay late at the office to get it done. So it'll have to be nine.

Questions 35 through 37 refer to the following conversation.

Man Aren't we meeting with the clients next Friday? I thought they said they wanted to go over the accounts with us.

Woman Yes, they want to see exactly how we're spending their money. I've reserved the conference room so we can meet there. I've also arranged for a light lunch to be served.

Man Why did you do all that? I thought we'd planned to meet at the clients' office downtown.

Woman Yes, but they called today to tell me they'd prefer to meet here. Their offices are being painted, apparently, and everything's a big mess there.

Questions 38 through 40 refer to the following conversation.

Woman I'd like two tickets for the ten o'clock show. Front row please.

Man We don't have reserved seats. You can sit anywhere you want, back, front, middle, wherever. OK, that's eight fifty per ticket, so 17 dollars total.

Woman Here you are. Look at the time. My husband had better get here soon. The movie is about to start, isn't it?

Man Yes, it is. You'd better go on in. Right through this door here.

Questions 41 through 43 refer to the following conversation.

Man I'm going on vacation in a few days. Can you recommend any good books to take with me? A little light reading, something relaxing.

Woman I'm not much of a reader, but why don't you talk to my boss, Mary? She's always talking about books. She'll be around tomorrow.

Man I don't have time. I want to get this taken care of today because I'm leaving on Sunday, and I have a lot more to get done before then.

Woman I'm sorry I can't be of more help to you.

Questions 44 through 46 refer to the following conversation.

Man We've finally made some decisions about next November's conference. It's going to start on the first Wednesday of the month.

Woman Then it will end on a Friday, right? It's supposed to last for three days.

Man Correct. Also we decided against holding it at a hotel. Instead, we've reserved some rooms at the museum. They've got good space there.

Woman That'll be more interesting than the convention center. I guess I'd better plan the workshop schedule right away. I'll get started on it now.

Questions 47 through 49 refer to the following conversation.

Woman I'm leaving on my trip for Montreal next Friday, but I was wondering if you could try to change my ticket for me. I'd rather leave in the morning than in the afternoon.

Man I'll look into it. Your hotel reservations are all taken care of, right?

Woman Yes, that's under control. And the meeting schedule they sent us looks fine. I think everything else is in place.

Man Good. I'll call the airline and see what I can do about your plane ticket.

Questions 50 through 52 refer to the following conversation.

Man These copies of the director's report have to be made today, but my assistant is out sick. He usually does my photocopying for me.

Woman I've got some time. I could do it for you. How many copies do you need?

Man Four—no—better make it 500, just to be sure. They're part of the fundraising packet that's going out to all our top donors.

Woman Then you'll need them right away. I've got a meeting after lunch, but I think I can get part of it done before then, and I can do the rest later.

Questions 53 through 55 refer to the following conversation.

Man I'm really getting tired of the food in the company cafeteria. I eat there almost everyday, except those days when I have so much work that I have to have lunch at my desk.

Woman There's that new restaurant on the corner that I've been wanting to try. Why don't you go there with me today?

Man I'd really like to, but not today. I have to go shopping for some things I need for my trip next week.

Woman Another time then. I want to try that place, but I hate eating alone. I'll call you tomorrow, and we'll set a date.

Questions 56 through 58 refer to the following conversation.

Woman Look at this weather! With all this rain coming down, I'll never arrive at the airport on time. The buses will be running impossibly slow.

Man That's not a problem. Take the subway. If the weather is stormy or clear, you know the subway is always on schedule.

Woman That's a great idea, but then I'll need you to give me a hand. The station is a block away, and that's a bit far to carry my suitcase. Would you carry it for me?

Man Of course. Are you ready to go now? Let's see, you have your ticket, here's your coat.... Let's go!

Questions 59 through 61 refer to the following conversation.

Woman I'd like to reserve a room at your hotel for next week. I plan to arrive Monday evening and stay until Wednesday morning.

Man That sounds fine. A room for Monday and Tuesday nights, then. Will that be a single or a double room? We also have three-room suites available. They can accommodate up to six people.

Woman That sounds very nice, however, I'll be traveling alone so I think a single room will do.

Man Very good. May I have your credit card number, please?

Questions 62 through 64 refer to the following conversation.

Doctor Hello James, I just received the results of your monthly check-up and they are very good.

James That's great to hear. I think you've met my wife? She wanted to join us today; she has been quite insistent about monitoring my health.

Wife Good day, doctor. You know, I had the same operation last year, and I know how much of a painful process it is to recover.

Doctor I'm sure your husband appreciates all the help you're giving. It's that kind of compassion and empathy that will help your husband heal faster.

Wife I completely agree.

James Is there anything we can do to make the healing process go faster? Should I exercise? Any specific eating habits?

Doctor I'd cut down on all sugars and avoid any alcohol for now. While exercising is good, I suggest you only do lighter physical exercise such as swimming because high impact motions could worsen your condition.

Wife My doctor told me the same thing! I'd be happy to take my husband to the pool and show him some of the exercises I learned last year.

Doctor Seems like we will have a fast recovery.

James I am certain I will heal quickly thanks to the both of you.

Questions 65 through 67 refer to the following conversation and table.

Radio Host Good evening everyone and thank you for tuning in to radio 95 FM. Tonight, we will not cover the Giant's hockey match results like we usually do. Instead, I want to share with you some results from the local 10K race that took place last Saturday in Broader City. Mike, our local correspondent there, has joined us for this special show. Good evening Mike!

Mike Good evening John, thanks for having me. It's been more than two years since we've last talked on air, if I am not mistaken.

Radio Host That's correct Mike, we haven't had a chance to cover such an event for quite some time. So what were some of the highlights of the race?

Mike Well, first of all, the race had only four foreign participants, who were all students of the local university. The youngest was a Canadian who, at only 19 years old, had the fastest run time. It seems age does impact speed, as the second-fastest runner was a Spanish participant who finished the race in only 27 minutes. Coming in 3rd place was a slightly older French runner with a running time of 37 minutes. Following him was a Hungarian runner who finished the race in only 39 minutes.

Radio Host These are some fantastic results. Will you also cover next week's marathon results?

Mike Unfortunately not, Joey will be in charge.

Radio Host Well, I'm sorry to hear that, but look forward to chatting with Joey here on the show.

Nationality	Age
French participant	32 years old
Spanish participant	22 years old
Canadian participant	19 years old
Hungarian participant	29 years old

Questions 68 through 70 refer to the following conversation and picture.

Cindy Hi Sophie, could I ask you a question?

Sophie Of course Cindy.

Cindy Have you ever written an ad before? I have to rent out my room in my parent's house for six months starting this June, but I'm not quite sure how to proceed.

Sophie I'll be glad to help you. Here's an example of an ad I wrote last year when I also had to rent out a room. First, you will have to take a few pictures of your room to put up on the site. I used this picture in my ad. Have a look. It was a bit chaotic and rather messy, but it worked well.

Cindy Great. Oh! These couches are the same as the ones we have downstairs.

Sophie Those are the same ones indeed. I purchased them from a high-end furniture store for almost four thousand euros. Unfortunately, they were stained with wine on a few occasions, but they are still in pretty good condition.

Cindy And once I take the photos?

Sophie You'll have to write the ad. I will send you a few examples this evening for inspiration. I have to finish my homework for now, but you will see, it is actually very simple.

Cindy Thank you for your help.

Questions 74 through 76 refer to the following advertisement.

This year, try a different kind of vacation. Lakeland offers specialized cruises on beautiful Lake Pine. While you enjoy the spectacular lake scenery and the comfortable accommodations and delicious meals offered on all of our boats, you will also have the opportunity to learn fascinating facts about Lake Pine. Each trip has a special theme. You can learn about lake wildlife, local history, environmental issues, or choose another fascinating topic from our list. Eight different tours are offered each season. The ten-day trips include free daily lectures given by university professors, films, and guided shore tours. Our low prices start at $2,000 per couple. A complete price list and a trip schedule for this season are available on our website. Don't delay. Make your reservations right now for the trip of a lifetime.

Questions 77 through 79 refer to the following announcement.

Attention visitors. It is now 6:45. The museum will close in 15 minutes. Please leave the galleries now and proceed to the main level. We request that you exit through the main entrance only, as the side and basement entrances are now closed. We remind visitors who have left coats or packages in the coat-check room to pick them up before leaving the museum. Don't forget to stop by the information desk to pick up a schedule of upcoming programs on your way out. We hope you have enjoyed your visit with us today.

Questions 80 through 82 refer to the following announcement.

Good morning and welcome to the third annual conference of the Association of Professional Accountants. Following our speaker this morning, workshops will begin at ten-fifteen. A complete workshop schedule is included in your information packets. All workshops will be held in the meeting rooms on the first and second floors. They should be easy to find, but a map of the building is posted just outside the door here for your convenience. Lunch will be served from twelve thirty until one fifteen in the Bay View Restaurant on the ground floor, then the afternoon workshops will take place from one thirty until three thirty. We'll gather back here in the auditorium at three forty-five for a small awards ceremony and farewells. And now I'd like to introduce our guest speaker.

Questions 83 through 85 refer to the following news report.

The Acme Manufacturing Company announced yesterday that, after six months of searching, they have chosen a site in the city of Springfield for constructing their new factory. Their plans have been submitted for approval to the city zoning board. Approval is expected to be granted as soon as next week as most city officials have expressed a favorable attitude towards the new factory because of the estimated 250 new jobs it will bring to the city. Acme hopes to begin construction of the new facility early next year. In anticipation of the announcement, residents of the area close to the planned factory site have been organizing for the past few weeks to oppose the plans, saying that it will make their neighborhood an unattractive place to live and negatively affect property prices.

Questions 86 through 88 refer to the following announcement.

The National Symphony Orchestra will be performing in our city next Sunday as part of the Summer Outdoor Entertainment series being held at City Park. As part of this event, students from the local music school will play along with the regular orchestra members. The performances will take place in the area behind the soccer fields. There will be two performances only. Tickets go on sale Wednesday at the City Theater box office. Tickets for the evening performance will be sold at the usual full price of $30 and will be half price for the special afternoon performance.

Questions 89 through 91 refer to the following weather report.

Here is your weather report for Monday, May 8. Cloudy skies this morning will give way to rain showers by early afternoon. Rain will continue throughout the rest of the day and most of the night. Rain may be heavy at times and flooding in low areas is a possibility. Expect clearing by early morning. Tomorrow will be warm and sunny all day, which is good news for our city's school children, who will be enjoying their first day of summer vacation, and for commuters, who can expect an easy ride in to work with no delays caused by weather. High temperatures today will only reach about 70 degrees, with overnight lows in the 50s.

Questions 92 through 94 refer to the following announcement.

Thank you for coming to tonight's event. I enjoyed chatting with many of you during the coffee hour. Now, I'd like to introduce tonight's speaker: Ethel McCoy, the nationally-known financial writer. She is the author of seven books and a columnist for the Daily Times newspaper. She will speak to us tonight on the topic of her most recent book, How to Start a Small Business Without Financial Ruin. Following her talk, Ms. McCoy will be available to sign books, which are for sale at the back of the room. Don't forget, at our next week's meeting there will be no lecture. Instead, we will be showing the film Climb to the Top. In two weeks, we resume our regular lecture schedule. Also, there is nothing on the schedule for next month's meetings, so please see me if you have any ideas.

Questions 95 through 97 refer to the following monolog and picture.

Good afternoon Judy, I am quite happy you could make it today. Let me start by giving you a simple tour of the living room. As you can see, everything is brand new. The windows are large and the light comes in all afternoon. Those details will be in the rental contract as well. All of the furniture present in the space can either be purchased or simply rented out for the year. The owners are very flexible and will work with you regarding those details. There is also a high-tech fireplace that is both easy to use and will save you money on heating. As for the couches, please try them out and let us know if they are comfortable enough. We have some extra ones in the basement that could be brought up should you need something more comfortable. I think that's about everything. Oh no, I almost forgot, the house has been entirely decorated by an interior designer, so I'm sure you'll find this a very peaceful and harmonious living space. Please don't hesitate to call should you have further questions.

Questions 98 through 100 refer to the following monolog and table.

Good afternoon everyone and welcome to this semester's philosophy course. My name is Ms. Johnson, and I will be your professor for this course. I am also a music teacher, so we may, for some of you, also see each other on Wednesday afternoon. Your first assignment for this course is here on the board. You see this list of movies with their genres, along with their show times at the cinema on East Street. Please feel free to double check if other nearby cinemas are playing them. Based on your preference and schedule, you need to choose one film to watch and write a condensed summary. Your assignment should be both personal and objective. I have provided you with three genres and various playing times, which should give you ample flexibility in completing this assignment. This is due in one week, after which we will conduct to peer evaluations of each other's summaries. That's right--your classmates will also be your evaluators for this. But this means in no way that you should take this assignment lightly, I recommend you spend at least 2 full hours on your summary, on top of the time spent watching the movie.

Fims	Types	Playing times
The wild at heart	Action	2hr30 minutes
Blue life	Romantic comedy	1hr45 minutes
Secret folk stories	Documentary	1hr15 minutes
